

TO BE A LIVERYMAN

I have always regarded becoming a Liveryman as a great privilege; knowing what it should mean for the individual and the Company.

We swear to be true and faithful to the Company, to the Lord Mayor and the City and Her Majesty the Queen in the understanding of "Once a Liveryman always a Liveryman." Our Livery nurtures excellence within agriculture exercises a duty of social care and participates fully within the City of London. We give thanks for the fellowship and service of the Livery Companies; for the customs which carry the memory of times past into the future with confidence and hope; for the skills and talents which they represent and promote in each generation and for the generosity of their charitable work.

We strive to maintain and improve the quality of our Educational Offering and Charitable Program therefore safeguarding and improving our income is paramount. Leaving a legacy in your will is the most effective way to ensure to achieve this objective.

A bequest from you, no matter how large or small, will be warmly welcomed and remembered as it helps to shape our future.

Four types of legacy:

A Residuary Gift – made after all commitments and other bequests have been made

A Pecuniary Gift - a fixed sum of money decided by you

A Specific Gift – a gift of something valuable i.e. property stocks or shares.

A Reversionary Gift – allows you to leave assets but others can benefit from them during your lifetime.

Legacies to a Charity are usually free from Inheritance Tax but, of course, you would consult your solicitor to ensure a will reflects your intentions.
